Adventist Enterprises Newsletter

July 2011

The e-books, “The Final Deception and Its Antidote” and “Unlocking the Messianic Prophecies” are now available in paperback format, please see the website for more details.

The belief in the imminent return of Christ is founded on Scripture, because we see the complete fulfillment of most lines of prophecy and the present condition of the world.

As Christians we have a duty to warn others to turn to Christ before probation closes. In the parables of the talents and pounds the principle of using out talents for God is set forth (Mt. 25; Lk. 19). We are given the command, “occupy till I come”. We need to be about the Lord’s business; at His coming He will require what He has lent us with interest. All around us are lost souls perishing, what sacrifices are we willing to make to help them know about Jesus?

A practical way to help is to keep an account of all ones expenditure and see where the leaks are; by being careful we can have something to give to the poor or help the gospel work. Rather than buying a new sofa, think about helping build a new well so people can have clean drinking water, or purchase some magazines to distribute, or donate to some mission project. In living like this we will be truly happy as we think of the blessings that are being bestowed on others, and all the glory will be given to God.

We can also go door to door to tell others the good news of salvation. The reward of the colporteur will be in seeing lost souls in the kingdom. Such as work may seem tireless and unrewarding but God has great blessings in store for those who take up this work. If you feel called to do this, contact your publishing director of your local Conference or Union.

If you would like to help the work of Adventist Enterprises, you can download leaflets about books to give to interested persons, and there is also a donation section. Funds are needed to help keep the website running, to cover the cost of travel for colporteur work, for Google Adwords to bring people to the site and other purposes as set out in the constitution. Most importantly pray for the Holy Spirit to impress people to buy books containing the truth and do something to distribute literature in your local area.

Your brother in Christ
